OTHER DRESS CODE MENTIONS

Please note that school policy as noted in the Student-Parent Handbook indicates that clothing should be neat and clean, not frayed or torn. As such, the ever so popular torn jeans may not be worn to school. Please refer to Clothing and Dress on p. 26 of the handbook for the complete dress code.

CHANGE YOUR WORDS, CHANGE YOUR MINDSET

Teach your child to build a growth mindset by shifting the way he or she looks at challenges and setbacks. Here are some examples we encourage at school.

INSTEAD OF SAYING THAT	SAY THIS!!
I can't do that.	How can I get better at that?
This is hard.	This will take time & effort.
I don't get it!	What am I missing?
They're smarter than me.	What can I learn from them?
I give up!	I will keep working.
I am a failure.	I can learn from my mistakes.
It's too hard for me.	I'll keep trying.

CHAPEL OFFERINGS

Your offerings during September and October will be used by LCMS Disaster Relief to rebuild earthquake devastated areas and provide much needed food and clean water. Today we raised $155.21 brining our current total to $661.84. Thank you for your generous gifts. We reached our goal of $600! During the months of November and December, we will direct our gifts to Heifer International. More information will be shared with you and your child next week.

IN OUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

We want to lift up our school families in prayer! During our faculty devotions, chapel, and church services we will be including students and their families and school staff. Please join us in remembering the following families and staff this week (grade level noted): Holst (K, 3), Hultman (1), Hutchinson (K4), Imhoff (3,7,8), Jackson (4), Jacob (K, 2), Jacoby (K, 1), Janis (K,2), Jensen (8), Joyce (7) and Justice (4) along with Mrs. Hughes (grade 4 teacher), and Mrs. Joyce (Before/After Care).
