THIS WE BELIEVE... "What are morals?"

For Lutherans "morals" are the standards by which we govern our lives. These standards come from God's Word and can be summed up in the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20: 1-17). Jesus Himself sums up these commandments in Matt. 22: 37-39 – "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind [Commandments 1-3]. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself [Commandments 4-10]."

As Christians we seek to live a moral, God pleasing life because we are God's children, not in order to become His children. We are God's children because of our faith in Jesus Christ and all He has done for us, not because of anything we do. A moral life is one of the fruits of faith that a Christian displays in his or her daily life. It gives glory to God and blesses our neighbor.

CHAPEL SERVICES AND OFFERINGS

Thank you for your offerings supporting the ministry of Hearts for Jesus (Helping Hands Eastern European Ministries) during January and February. Today we collected $91.00 for a grand total of $441.00. Your gifts are a beacon to those needing Jesus!

TODAY'S VERSE TO REMEMBER

When you behold My Face, you rise above circumstances and rest with Me. This is the way of Peace, living in the Light of My Presence.

~ Psalm 2:6
