FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Our first impression of people may not always be correct. It is important for us to take time to observe, pay close attention, and consider with an open mind each unique individual as God’s creation.

Might there be an individual in your child’s class or in their life that they don’t understand or even annoys them? What can you do to help your child to get to know that person better and grow an appreciation for their unique strengths and personality?

Each of us are different in many ways. But each one of us is equally valuable. In our Friendly lessons this month, the students are learning that when we take the time to carefully observe the WHOLE child, and know each other’s story, we can begin to understand and appreciate each other.

Each one of us has value as God’s child!

Passionate and Christ-centered teachers are needed for the 2025-26 school year. We have openings to fill in Prekindergarten (K4) and 6th grade homeroom/middle school language arts. Both full-time positions require loving individuals that are committed to sharing the Gospel and eager to collaborate with a dedicated team of educators. Interested candidates may email Mrs. Klein at: jeannine.klein@concordialutheranschool.net. Aide positions are open also!
