TRAITS of GIRAFFES

(Read on, please...there is something to be learned from this!)

Today the kids were schooled a bit on giraffes. These 20-foot-tall creatures, have some special abilities that we can learn a lesson on availability from.

As part of a herd, these animals look out not only for their own interests, but also for the well-being of others as they travel in search of food and water. Young giraffes are left behind under the care of one or two older giraffes. These “guardians” or “baby-sitters” gladly take turns stepping up to watch for the young.

When it’s time for the giraffe to take a drink, members of the herd look out for the ones drinking that become vulnerable while their heads are down. They literally have each other’s backs!

Giraffes are excellent examples of AVAILABILITY. They are all about:

- Putting others ahead of themselves
- Finding a way to help, not hide
- Being glad for a chance to serve

BE A GIRAFFE!

If you apply for

RUSD School Choice registration, you will be enrolled in Racine Unified. Please take note!
