HONESTY = HONOR/RESPECT

Lions tell “their truth” through their body language. If you have a cat, you know what I am talking about. There is no denying or escaping what the feline family is telling you with flattened ears or barred teeth. These actions speak louder than any words!

Our actions speak volumes, too. But so do our words. Do we always tell the truth, right a wrong we’ve made, or return the incorrect change we’ve been given at the store? Each one of these speaks to our honesty and integrity. We are respected when we can be trusted! Our conscience is a gift given to us by God!

Ask your child to tell you about a well-known president (Honest Abe) who walked miles to right a wrong that he had made over just a few cents!

Please take a moment to discuss the value of honesty we covered at school again today! Up next in Character Trait Education is PATIENCE!
